

Related Attorneys

- Joshua P. Gunnemann

ROGERS & HARDIN ELECTS JOSHUA GUNNEMANN TO PARTNERSHIP

01.01.2015

Rogers & Hardin announces the election of Joshua P. Gunnemann to its partnership, effective January 1, 2015.

“Josh is an outstanding attorney and we are honored to have him join our partnership,” said founding partner Edward J. “Jack” Hardin. “His dedication to the profession, to his clients, and to our community make him a great addition to our Firm. We look forward to his continued success.”

Mr. Gunnemann is an accomplished trial lawyer who represents businesses and individuals involved in complex business disputes, difficult litigation, and governmental investigations. He has significant experience representing plaintiffs and defendants in a wide variety of complex business matters, such as shareholder disputes, SEC and DOJ investigations, contract disputes, corporate-governance matters, fiduciary litigation, internal investigations involving fraud or accounting problems, and business breakups. He also advises and represents companies in matters relating to various business torts, such as trade-secret misappropriation and unfair competition, and he advises clients on matters of data security and privacy.

Earlier this year, Super Lawyers named Mr. Gunnemann a “Rising Star” in Georgia for business litigation for the second straight year. He has also received Martindale-Hubbell’s highest rating of AV Preeminent in Litigation, Business Law and Securities Law.