

TRACY PLOTT JOINS ROGERS & HARDIN AS PARTNER

10.04.2018

Tracy Plott has joined Rogers & Hardin as a partner in the Firm. Tracy has over 25 years of experience in commercial real estate and financing transactions. She has significant experience in asset-based financing, restructuring of debt obligations, bond financing, joint ventures, syndications of loans, and limited partnerships. Her lending practice encompasses construction, permanent and mezzanine lending, asset-based financing, and synthetic leases.

Tracy also represents corporate and other clients in the acquisition, development, leasing, and disposition of real property. Her acquisition and development practice includes representing clients involved in commercial, industrial, health care, and recreational communities. She is experienced in forming joint ventures for the acquisition, development, and management of real property.

In addition, Tracy represents lending clients in non-judicial foreclosures and confirmations of such non-judicial foreclosures. She provides support for wealth management and fiduciary litigation relating to real estate matters, including financing, acquisition, and disposition of property.