INSURANCE-RELATED LITIGATION

We represent insurance brokers, TPA's, carriers and insureds in a wide variety of matters. Our representations range from the litigation of major class actions and coverage disputes, to the defense of broker E&O claims, to providing consultation and advice on specific insurance coverage issues. Not limited to insurance questions, the Firm also assists insurance companies and insurance brokerage firms with general business litigation involving sales practices, insurance brokerage issues, employment matters, restrictive covenants and trade secret issues, and related problems.

We litigate cases in state and federal courts as well as before various arbitral tribunals. Our litigation experience includes insurance coverage litigation, broker and TPA errors and omissions disputes, directors and officers coverage matters, regulatory investigations, and RICO and antitrust cases, and it has involved coverage questions in a wide variety of industry sectors including healthcare, pharmaceutical, energy, manufacturing, construction, consumer products, retail and financial services.

We have handled disputes with respect to nearly all types of insurance policies and products, including:

- Business tort and intellectual property
- Business Interruption Insurance
- Construction Coverage
- Errors & Omissions coverage
- Employment Practice liability coverage
- Fidelity and Surety Bonds
- General Liability
- Property Coverage
- Pollution and Environmental coverage
- Products liability
- Professional liability
- Reinsurance
- Toxic tort and other multiple-party claims
- TPA disputes
- Workers Compensation liability

In addition to litigating disputes, our litigators also counsel clients on a wide variety of insurance coverage matters with an eye toward helping our clients avoid litigation whenever possible.
