

ACLU of Georgia

---

ACLU OF GEORGIA 2018 ANNUAL RECEPTION AND MEMBERSHIP MEETING

---

MEDIA CONTACT

Media contact: media@acluga.org \(mailto:media@acluga.org\)

---

APRIL 25, 2018

Presenting Lifetime Achievement Award to Robert B. Remar, Esq.

Keynote Address by Dale Ho, Director of the ACLU Voting Rights Project

Who: ACLU of Georgia

What: Annual Reception and Membership Meeting

Where: The Temple

Schwartz Goldstein Hall
1589 Peachtree St. NW
Atlanta, GA 30309

When: Thursday, April 26, 2018

6:00 Reception with heavy hors d'oeuvres
7:15 Membership Meeting

Why: Celebrate a year of unprecedented membership growth and learn about our strategies for 2018 as well as highlights from the previous year.

Present Lifetime Achievement Award to Robert B. Remar, Esq., a partner with Rogers & Hardin LLP. Remar has served as pro bono counsel on countless ACLU of Georgia cases over the years. For more than 30 years, Remar has been active with the ACLU of Georgia while also serving on the National ACLU Board of Directors.

Keynote Address by Dale Ho, Director of the ACLU Voting Rights Project. Ho led the team that recently eviscerated Kansas Secretary of State Kris Kobach, one of our nation's foremost vote suppressors. Kobach was recently held in contempt for refusing to let registered voters vote.